Notwithstanding the many complaints of duliness
which we have heard on all sides for the six months full elegants. The standard of all sides for the six months full elegants has shown an eclivity which has surpassed itself even in the days of rapid insurance. Its policy register shows an increase of risks taxen in Foormary over January of 50 per cent.
April over January of 50 per cent.
April over January of 80 per cent.
June over January of 90 per cent.
The number of policie taken for first six months of 1871 over corresponding period of 1870 is over 300 per cent; in amount insured over 5.0 per cent; and in amount of premium nearly 600 per cent.
We venture to say such success is unexcelled in this line of business tins year, and reflects great oredit upon the standing of the Company in favor of the insuring public.
